city and country مقارنة بين المدينة والقرية

The city is big. There are many office buildings, malls, roads, parks, zoos, big schools, and big hospitals in the city. Country is small. There are many huge mountains, many fields, nice farms, small villages and small schools in the country. The city is bigger than the country. The city is noisier than country. The country is more beautiful than the city. I like city and country.

The Concorde

Back in the 60s, Britain and France wanted to make a supersonic airplane. A "supersonic" airplane is one that travels faster than sound. Its name is Concorde.

The first Concord flight happened on October 1, 1969 and it was a test. People started to use it for every day travelling in 1976. On January 21 that year, the British flew from London to Bahrain. The same day the French flew from Paris to Rio de Janeiro.

The Concorde was so fast that going from London to New York took only about three and a half hours. A normal flight took more than double the time, eight hours.

The Concorde could carry 100 passengers. Passengers are the travelers flying on an airplane. The Concorde had two pilots. It had an engineer, too. There were also six people to serve food and drinks to passengers. These six people were called cabin crew.
